SECTION C

FOR PARENT/GUARDIAN

Leave No Girl Behind International is a non-profit girls' empowerment organisation founded in 2013 and based in South Africa, dedicated to empowering girls and young women around the world to find, respect and embrace their own voices, talents and unique potential through leadership.

Our vision is for Leave No Girl Behind International to become a globally recognised leadership organisation for girls and empower girls, regardless of their circumstances, to realise their potential as entrepreneurs, change-makers, law-makers and pioneers in history.

The LNGB School of Leadership for girls is offering a 90-day intensive leadership program. This program will enable girls to discover, respect and embrace their voices and potential through the six principles of Leave No Girl Behind International – love, strength, courage, freedom, unity and equality. It is through leadership that girls find their power and create change for themselves and others.

Should your daughter's application be successful, we will require an interview with you and your daughter, so that she can take the step of becoming a Leader in Training (L.I.T.).

This program costs $297, however there will be no financial expense to applicants and their parents - we are facilitating sponsors to cover the program costs of every girl accepted. All we ask in return is for your daughter's commitment and accountability.

By becoming a Leader in Training, your daughter is committing to:

- Being present for a 90 minute in-person session per month (group discussions, masterminding, etc).
- Dedicating 10 minutes a day to her L.I.T. task-of-the-day.
- Watching the 20 minute video-of-the-week.
- A possible meet-and-greet with her sponsor.

Successful completion of the program and complete benefit from it, requires commitment and accountability.
